Who wants to Bet? ONE hundred bags of Flour, Fifty bushels Meal,

Fifty bushels Meal,

Five hundred pounds choice Hams,

Have been deposited at my store to bet on the following terms: 25 Hams and enough Meal or Flour to eat with it, that the successful candidate will be the next President if he lives and does not resign. 56 Hams against a hundred delburs hog that the candidate who gets beat will not receive as many electoral votes as the one who is successful. The balance to bet as opportunity offers, the chances in all cases to ! e equal to the two mentioned above. If these bets are not taken soon, the whole will be sold on account of the
